

Sharing in Mary's Joy

Led by Father Dominique Faure

Thursday 24th to Sunday 27th January 2019

About the Retreat

We are most fortunate to have Fr Dominique Faure coming to us in Walsingham to preach a retreat on Sharing in Mary's Joy. The topics he will cover over the course of the retreat will include:

- Why Mary is full of joy?
- How we can enter into Mary's Joy?
- How does Our Lady help us grow in Faith, Hope and Charity.

Along with daily Mass and adoration, there will also be opportunities for confession and questions.

Retreatants are invited to arrive on the Thursday evening and spend the Friday in silence meditating over some scripture passages which will form the backdrop to the retreat. The retreat itself will start on Friday evening at 9pm with the arrival of Fr Dominique and end on Sunday by 5pm.

About Fr Dominic

Fr Dominique Faure is an inspiring Missionary Religious Priest with a deep philosophical, theological and contemplative formation. At the personal request of Mother Teresa he spends most of his time travelling the world preaching retreats for the Missionaries of Charity and many other lay, priestly and religious communities. Recently based in New Zealand, he is also Chaplain and Professor to the Catholic Discipleship College in Auckland.

Hospitality

Accommodation will be available in the newly refurbished Dowry House Retreat Centre which has its own chapel, two libraries, and cloister. Visit www.dowryhouse.org.uk for more details.

Suggested minimum contribution to cover accommodation, full board and retreat giver costs is £200 (£100 for 18-25yrs, students and unemployed). Day rate option of £20 covering lunch and dinner also offered. Possibility of partially attending the retreat although priority will be given to full-attendees.

To book, please call 01328 801018 or email dowryhouse@walsingham.org.uk. It is recommended that retreatants arrive at Dowry House Thursday evening 25th Jan. Departures on Sunday 27th January after 4pm.
